ANNA WILLIAMS'S MOTION TO WITHDRAW THE REFERENCE AND TO ABSTAIN,
DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY,
AND NOTICE OF NON-CONSENT TO ENTRY OF FINAL ORDERS

TO THE HONORABLE JEFFREY NORMAN, U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

THIS MOTION SEEKS RELIEF FROM A UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Anna Williams moves to withdraw the reference because state law claims and non-core matters predominate the Complaint filed by HouTex Builders, LLC, 2203 Looscan Lane, LLC, and 415 Shadywood, LLC (the Debtors). Williams further moves the Court to abstain because the claims stated against her are not “core” proceedings. Williams also demands a trial by jury as to all matters so triable. And Williams provides this notice that she does not consent to the entry of final orders in this action.

MOTION TO WITHDRAW THE REFERENCE

Williams moves to withdraw the reference because state law claims and non-core matters predominate the Complaint filed by Debtors. The Debtors seeks relief under the Texas Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act for transfers occurring between non-debtor entities. The Debtors invoke Texas statutory law to avoid member distributions to Williams.<sup>1</sup>

MOTION TO ABSTAIN

Williams moves the Court to abstain from exercising any jurisdiction over this matter. The federal courts created abstention as a doctrine to resolve conflicts between federal and state court; the doctrine is based on comity with state courts. See 17A Charles Alan Wright, Arthur R. Miller & Edward H. Cooper, Federal Practice and Procedure: Jurisdiction 2d §§ 4241-55 (2d ed. 1988). In the context of bankruptcy, however, abstention is statutory. See 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c). A bankruptcy court must abstain where:

- (1) timely motion is made by a party;
- (2) proceeding is based on a state law claim or cause of action;
- (3) proceeding is "related to" a case, not "arising under" the Code or "arising in" a case; In re Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pac. R.R., 6 F.3d 1184, 1194 (7th Cir. 1993); In re Emerald Acquisition Corp., 170 B.R. 632, 646 (Bankr. N.D. Ind. 1994) (non-core proceeding requirement is most important factor);
- (4) but for the bankruptcy, proceeding would have been brought in state, not <sup>1</sup> Williams does not waive her arguments that the Debtors have failed to state a claim against her.

Federal, court (i.e., no independent ground of federal jurisdiction); and

(5) action is commenced which the bankruptcy court finds will be timely adjudicated. 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c)(2). See Miller & Miller Auctioneers, Inc. v. Ritchie Bros. Auctioneers Int'l (In re Mo. Props. Inc.), 211 B.R. 914 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 1996). Non-core proceedings involving the liquidation or estimation of personal injury tort and wrongful death claims against the estate are not subject to mandatory abstention. 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(4).

Williams submits that the Debtors in this case seek to enforce state law claims that would have been properly brought in state court but for the bankruptcy; the Court must abstain.

Williams moves for that relief.

Alternatively, the Court should exercise its discretion and abstain because abstention would serve the interests of justice, comity with state courts, and respect for state law. 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c)(1). Williams moves for that relief.

DESIGNATION OF THE RECORD

Williams designates the following as the portion of the record of the bankruptcy court proceedings they believe to be reasonably pertinent to the district court's consideration of the motion:

1. Plaintiff's Adversary Complaint (Doc. 1, filed June 29, 2020); and
2. Williams's Motion to Withdraw the Reference, Demand for Trial by Jury, and Notice of Non-Consent to Entry of Final Orders.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Williams demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

NOTICE OF NON-CONSENT TO ENTRY OF FINAL ORDERS

Williams provide this notice that she does not consent to the entry of final orders being entered by the bankruptcy court in this adversary proceeding.

CONCLUSION

Anna Williams asks the district court to withdraw the reference as to all claims and issues in this adversary proceeding and to adjudicate this action in district court, to abstain from exercising jurisdiction over this matter, to grant her constitutional right to a trial by jury as to all issues so triable, and for any other relief to which she is entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
